Dear Mr. Rich Jones:

This responds to your Freedom of Information Act request dated January 27, 2012, for "all documents mentioning the weapon-detecting infrared-ray device, made in association with the New York Police Department." We received your request on the same day it was submitted and assigned it FOIA case number 12-F-0449.

The Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) performed a thorough search of their records systems, however, no records were located. You are advised that the United States Army (USA) may have records which could be responsive to your request. Should you elect to do so, you can contact the USA at the following address:

Department of the Army
Attn: AHRC=PDD-FP
Freedom of Information of Act Division
7701 Telegraph Road
Alexandria, VA 22315-3860

If you are not satisfied with this action, you may appeal to the appellate authority, the Director of Administration and Management, Office of the Secretary of Defense, by writing directly to the Defense Freedom of Information Policy Office, Attn: Mr. James Hogan, 1155 Defense Pentagon, Washington, D.C. 20301-1155. Your appeal should be postmarked within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter, should cite this case number 12-F-0449, and should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." There are no charged fees associated with this response. Accordingly, this case has been closed in this Office.

Sincerely,

Paul J. Jacobsmeyer
Chief
